Terms and conditions for entry and participation in the Targa Florio Ferrari Tribute

Important: THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS (“DG”) GOVERN THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF YOUR ENTRY APPLICATION, AND OF YOUR EVENTUAL ADMISSION AND PARTICIPATION IN THE TARGA FLORIO FERRARI TRIBUTE. IN ORDER TO REGISTER FOR THE TARGA FLORIO FERRARI TRIBUTE RACE, YOU MUST ACCEPT THE DG, YOU ARE RECOGNIZING AND ACCEPTING THE FACT THAT YOU WILL BE GOVERNED BY THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

Art. 1 – Programs (preliminary and finalized): Preliminary programs are those still being refined in terms of routing and locations, and/or in terms of the structures that will be used. The Palermo Automobile Club (hereafter referred to as “The Organization”), hereby affirms that it will maintain the services and structures shown in the finalized program. However, in the unlikely event of services becoming unavailable, the Organization is responsible for ensuring that services and/or structures be substituted with services and /or structures of equal or higher quality as indicated in the finalized program.

Art. 2 – Historic Cars’ Regularity: The terms of reference regarding regulations will be the C.S.A.I. Regulations currently in use. Time measurement will be guaranteed with a precision of a hundredth of a second with penalties for early or late arrival. Time measurement will be done by use of pneumatic tube pressure switches, which must have print-out equipment.

Art. 3 – Cars Admitted to the Targa Florio Ferrari Tribute: 80 cars will be selected by the appropriate commission to take part in the event. All vehicles must be lawfully registered with license plates and will not be admitted if having only a temporary plate.

Art. 4 – Advertising: No form of advertisement may be placed on the cars with the exception of that specifically decided by the Organization, which will be communicated, respecting the C.S.A.I. regulations currently in use.

The names of the members of the crew may be written on each side of the car, however the allotted space must not exceed the maximum dimensions of 10x40 cm per side.

A club insignia, which is not being used either totally or partially for advertising purposes, is allowed on the sides of the car, as long as it occupies a space no larger than 10 x 10 cm. or equivalent area per side of the car. Identification insignia or other signage that was originally on the car, and is still in its exact original format on the car, will be tolerated, even if this gives added publicity to the car or car manufacturer, as long as it serves the same function as it did in the past. It will be necessary to prove that this was originally on this specific car by identifying the car by its chassis number.

The Organization and the event officials will remove from all vehicles any kind of publicity that does not conform to the above rules. There will be an initial check prior to the race and further checks will take place throughout the event.

Infractions by entrants, or non-adherence to what is stated in this article, will result in 12,000 penalty points. Any future entry applications for the event submitted by such crews will not be accepted. The Organization reserves the right to charge offenders for any damages caused to itself.

Entrants will be obliged to release the organizers from any responsibility and/or damages to the Organization and to 3rd parties in general and any compensation that is due to these will be at the entrant's expense, as a consequence of violating the aforementioned regulations.

Art. 5 - Admission to the Targa Florio Ferrari Tribute and Eventual Protests: The selection committee is the sole authority deciding which vehicles may take part. Therefore no protests as to refused entries will be taken into consideration. The selection committee's judgment is not challengeable and therefore all its decisions are final.

Art. 9 – Objections to the Entry Fee: Under no circumstance whatsoever and at no time will the Organization take into consideration any disputes regarding renegotiation of entry fees. The fee reflects the quality, quantity, type of service and assistance on offer at the time of registration, and will not be renegotiable or refundable after the event.

When the Organization begins the preliminary phases of the event organization, a series of costs are taken into consideration in order to define the entry fees. These costs include publicity costs to make the event known to the public, production, distribution and printing expenses, amongst other significant expenses. In the event that your application is not accepted, your entry fees will be refunded deducting the banking fees or commissions incurred (notwithstanding the provisions of the art. 1385 of the Italian Civil Code). These fees will be refunded via bank transfer or credited to your credit card by March 10, 2014.

Art. 10 – Renunciation/Race Withdrawal: All obligations connected to the entry application are subject to conditions subsequent to the approval of the CSAI. Approval will take place by August 30. In the event of non-approval, the Organization solely responsible for restituting entry fees. These fees will be refunded via bank transfer after the banking fees or commissions incurred (notwithstanding the provisions of the art. 1385 of the Italian Civil Code) have been deducted. Partial or total renunciation in the event must be given in writing by the entrant, by means of a registered letter, to the company's address: automobileclubpalermo@pec.aci.it.

Fees shall be refunded as follows:

- 85% if communication is made before on 1st August 2014;
- 50% if communication is made before midnight on 29th August 2014;
- No refund if communication is made after midnight on 30th August 2014;

No reimbursement will be given to entrants who do not show up at the starting line or who withdraw during the event. No fees will be reimbursed if an entrant cannot take part in the event due to invalid or insufficient personal, travel, or car documents.

No substitution of competitors is allowed after on-line entry applications have closed. One member of the participating team may be substituted up to the point in time when document scrutineering takes place in Palermo, at the sole discretions of the Organizing Committee. In the time between technical scrutineering and communication of the final Starting Grid, the additional approval of the Stewards is required.

Substitution of both members of the participating team is subject to the sole, discretionary approval of the Organizing Committee.

A first substitution incurs no additional charge. Any further changes are subject to an administration fee of € 250 + VAT 22% due upon application.

The mechanical assistance or the guests can be substituted. In any case, the communication of this change should be given to the Organization in time and the substitution should not cause trouble.

Accompanying cars and support vehicles may change members of the crew as long as this has been communicated to the Organization within a reasonable amount of time and as long as there are no reasons to oppose this change or other problems associated with this change.

If your vehicle is not accepted, the registration fee will be returned, net of bank charges and/or collection charges (departing from Article 1385, paragraph II, of the Italian Civil Code) within 14 October 2014, by bank transfer or by crediting participants' credit cards.

Art. 11 – Acts of God: In the event of any acts of “forza maggiore”, the Organization will be released from any obligation to provide the services stipulated, as it will not be in a condition to carry out these services. The term “Acts of God” or “forza maggiore” encompasses the following: strikes, bad weather conditions, wars, civil or military disorders, uprisings or riots, natural calamities, pillaging, acts of terrorism. These will be considered acts of “forza maggiore” and the Organization will be held blameless for the above or similar.

If one of these events should occur, and it is no longer possible to provide services, entrants and/or crews will waive the right to any reimbursement, compensation or indemnity with regards to the total amount paid by the entrant. The Organization has to use the sum to cover the costs of organizing the event. The only possible exception to this would be in the case of damages covered by the insurance policy regarding the Targa Florio Ferrari Tribute, set up by the Organization.

Art. 12 – Protection of Privacy: the Organization will treat the personal data of all entrants in accordance with Italian law n° 196/03 protecting the confidential nature of personal data.
